

Please Consider opening the TV channels for fixed broadband access.
Right now we are competing with big companies that have resources that we do not.
for them to get a customer online is much easier than it is for us. If these lower channels were opened we would have the same advantage as the "big players" because line of site would not be required.
Thankyou for your consideration